

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Daniel Clancy

President, Wisconsin Technical College

System, currently serves as president of the nationally recognized Wisconsin Technical College System, which has 16 technical college districts throughout Wisconsin, offering more than 300 programs awarding two-year associate degrees, one- and two-year technical diplomas and short-term technical diplomas. Prior to his appointment as system president in December 2004, Mr. Clancy was the Interim System President for a four month period. From 1996 to 2004, he served as vice president for Finance and Policy with the Wisconsin Technical College System. From 1979 to 1996, he was a program supervisor and fiscal analyst with the Wisconsin Legislative Fiscal Bureau. Mr. Clancy has a bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and did graduate work at the Institute of Public Policy Studies at the University of Michigan. He is married with two sons.

Mr. Clancy serves on several Wisconsin boards and commissions, including:

- Governor's Council on Workforce Investment
- PK-16 Leadership Council
- Wisconsin Development Fund Board
- Forward Wisconsin Board of Directors
- Competitive Wisconsin Board
- Wisconsin Technology Council
- Wisconsin Manufacturing Extension Partnership Board
- Wisconsin International Trade Council