

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Jeremy Goodfellow

Jeremy brings diverse industry and business experience to the leadership of Sanimax's Energy Business Unit. Prior to joining Sanimax in January 2007, he built a successful wholesale industrial chemical and biofuel venture, supplying major chemical and fuel companies. He has also held various leadership roles in operations, procurement and finance in the chemical and automotive sectors. He has a BA in Economics from Wilfrid Laurier University and a MBA from the University of Windsor. Jeremy represents Sanimax on the National Biodiesel Board, Wisconsin BioIndustry Alliance and National Renderers Association's Biofuels Committee as the company continues growth in renewable energy, both as a feedstock supplier and a producer, commercializing exceptional technologies, including multi-feedstock biodiesel, oil extraction and premium renewable fuels and solvents.
